That would be great! When he walked in yesterday I said guess who I saw today and told him. We had to tape the news so he could watch it.

Thank you so much!!!

Amy: Did the Governor tell you he'd sign the picture? I could try to get our communications dept to have it printed so that he could autograph it and send it back to Cory. Would that work?

Kelly This is a picture of my son, Cory Scribner, with Governor Musgrove. We were at the State Department of Education to celebrate the retirement of my Aunt Frances Coggins for 50 years of teaching.

Governor Musgrove was standing out front when we finished and Cory just walked up to him and shook his hand. It tickled him to death!

I want to thank you and Governor Musgrove for visiting today it was definantly a surprise.

I am sending 3 separate emails because the pictures are so large.
